AGANIPPE/PAVIMENTI

IL TEMPIO DELLA GRANIGLIA DAL 1910

Dire Aganippe e dire graniglia è la stessa cosa.
Nel 1910 il primo, caratteristico opificio Aganippe vide la luce nella piccola Fossacesia. Sorgeva tra la ferrovia utilizzata per il trasporto delle materie prime e il mare, nei pressi di un ruscello dove attingere l'acqua per l'impasto di quegli elementi naturali che non sarebbero più mutati nel tempo: cemento bianco, microgranIglia fine dei migliori marmi italiani,polvere di marmo.
Sull'onda di una tendenza architettonica volta alla riscoperta di suggestivi materiali classici e naturali, a partire dagli anni '80, Aganippe investe con determinazione per la realizzazione del nuovo e moderno stabilimento di Lanciano (CH) e sul suo ricchissimo know-how, divenendo nel giro di qualche anno sinonimo di Graniglie.

LA FAMIGLIA

Parler de la marque Aganippe et employer le terme Terrazzo sont deux choses indissociables. C'est en 1910 que la première usine a vue le jour, installée à Fossacesia entre chemin de fer et mer. L'excellente situation de l'usine lui permet une logistique efficace pour acheminer les matières premières : ciment blanc, granulats de marbre des meilleures carrières italiennes . Le mélange de ces matériaux a donné un élément naturel qui ne s'est jamais modifié dans le temps . Pour suivre les tendances architecturales , Aganippe a investi pour construire une nouvelle usine à Lanciano et son savoir faire eSt devenu en quelques années synonyme de Terrazzo.

Aganippe means terrazzo; In 1910 the first characteristic factory was born in Fossacesia between the railway and the sea. The factory's good position let to have easily raw material: white cement, marble grit from the best Italian marbles. Marble powder mixed with water gave a natural element which never changed during the time. Following architectonic trend, which wants to rediscover classical and natural materials, in the 80s, Aganippe invested to build a new and modern factory in Lanciano (CH) and in his great know-how, becoming in a few years synonymous of Terrazzo.
